

How We Use Your Child's Information Privacy Notice for parents of Younger Pupils (Full)

Orchard Hill College Academy Trust

November 2020

Introduction

This Privacy Notice (Notice) is to help you understand how and why the school collects and uses your child's personal data and what we do with that information.

The School is part of Orchard Hill College Academy Trust (the Trust). Because the Trust runs the School it is ultimately responsible for how the School handles your child's personal data.

We are providing you this notice because you are able to exercise your child's data protection rights on their behalf. When your child is older and is assessed as having the capacity they will be able to exercise their own data protection rights.

If you have any questions about this notice please talk to your child's form tutor or the Data Protection Officer. GDPR Sentry Limited, Unit 434 Birch Park, Thorp Arch Estate, Wetherby, LS23 7FG, support@gdprsentry.com, 0113804203 or via the Business Support Partner (Rachael Tucker), data.protection@ohcat.org, 020 3897 7002.

What is "personal data"?

Personal data is information that we hold about your child and which identifies your child.

This includes information such as their date of birth and address as well as things like exam results, medical details and behaviour records. CCTV images, photos and video recordings of your child are also personal data.

Where we get your child's personal data from and who we share it with

We obtain your child's personal data from a number of different sources such as our teachers, parents, your child's previous schools and any future school, other pupils and their parents, as well as from people outside of the School such as the local authority.

We will also share information with these people and organisations.

The purposes for which we use your child's personal data and the lawful bases

The School needs to use your child's personal data in order to:

1. Teach your child and our others;
2. Look after your child and others;
3. Monitor the behaviour of your child and others and to take action where appropriate;
4. Enable the Trust to comply with its legal obligations, to assist the Trust regarding the management and operation of the School and to advance and protect the Trust's interests, objects and reputation; and
5. Promote the School. For example, by using photographs of our pupils in the School prospectus, on the Trust or School's website or in social media.

Under data protection law, the Trust can only use personal data if it has a lawful basis for doing so. The lawful bases that we are relying on when handling your child's information are as follows:

- Public task: This allows us to use personal data where doing so is necessary in order to perform a task in the public interest. For example, we are performing a task in the public interest when we teach and look after your child.

- Legal obligation: The Trust might need to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example, to report a concern to Social's Services. Occasionally we may have a legal obligation to share your personal data with third parties such as the court.
- Vital interests: In limited circumstances, we may use your child's information to protect your child's vital interests or the vital interests of someone else. For example, to prevent someone from being seriously harmed.
- Legitimate interests: This means that we are using your child's personal data where this is necessary for our legitimate interests or someone else's legitimate interests. Legitimate interests only applies where it is not overridden by your interests, rights and freedoms.

Our purposes and lawful bases in more detail

This section contains more detail about the purposes for which your child's personal data is used, the applicable lawful basis or bases as well as further information about sources and recipients. It does not say anything different to what's set out above, but goes into more detail.

We have used a colour code system so that you can see which legal basis we are relying on for each of the purposes described above. LI means legitimate interests, PI means public task, LO means legal obligation and V means vital interests. So if we have LI, PI that means we are relying on both legitimate interests and public task for that purpose.

As you will see from the information above, in some cases we will rely on more than one lawful basis for using your child's information. In addition, we may move from one of the lawful basis listed above to another as circumstances change. For example, as a safeguarding matter becomes more serious, we may start to rely on "legal obligation" to share personal data with the local authority in addition to the other lawful bases which are noted for safeguarding purposes.

We use contractors to handle personal data on our behalf for the following purposes:

- a) IT consultants who might access information about your child when checking the security of our IT network;

- c) Third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on the School site.

If you have any questions about any of the above, please speak to the Data Protection Officer.

The Trust has extra obligations in relation to some types of more sensitive personal data. This applies to information about race or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, genetic information, biometric information, health information, information about gender and orientation, information about criminal convictions or offences. When the School handles these types of information it will usually be doing so because:

- It is in the substantial public interest to do so, for example, to provide your child with an education, to look after you and your child's classmates or when the School is inspected.
- For medical purposes. This includes medical treatment and the management of healthcare services.
- The Trust is an employer (e.g. we employ our teachers). Also the School will use your child's information to comply with social protection law (e.g. to look after you) and social security laws. - To protect the vital interests of any person where that person cannot give consent, for example, if they are seriously hurt and are unconscious.
- It is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims. For example, this allows us to share information with our legal advisors and insurers.

Consent

We may ask for your consent to use your child's information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the bases in the table above. For example, we may ask for your consent before taking or using some photographs and videos if the photograph or video is more intrusive, when the image is being used by on advertising on a billboard or bus or in a large advertising campaign, in a newspaper or in a case study in our prospectus with a particular focus on your child and we cannot rely on legitimate interests or it being in the public interest. If we ask for your consent to use your personal data you can take back this consent at any time.

Any use of your child's information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. Please speak to your child's form teacher if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

In certain circumstances, we may send your child's information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. For example, for school trips overseas.

The European Commission has produced a list of countries which have adequate data protection rules. The list can be found here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/data-protection/international-dimension-data-protection/adequacy-decisions_en

If the country that we are sending your child's information to is not on the list, or is not a country within the EEA (which means the European Union, Liechtenstein, Norway and Iceland), then it might not have the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK.

We will provide you with details about the safeguards which we have in place outside of this privacy notice. If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Data Protection Officer.

For how long do we keep your child's information?

We keep your child's information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after them. We will keep information after your child has left the School. In some cases we may keep your child's information for a longer time than usual, but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.

Please see our Information and Records Retention Policy for more detailed information. This can be found on our website.

What decisions can you make about your child's information?

Data protection legislation allows you to exercise a number of rights regarding your child's personal data. The rights are as follows:

- Correction: if personal data held by the Trust holds about your child is incorrect you can ask us to correct it.
- Access: you can also ask what personal data we hold about your child and be provided with a copy. This is commonly known as making a subject access request. We will also give you extra information, such as why we use this personal data about your child, where it came from and what types of people we have sent it to.
- Deletion: you can ask us to delete the personal data that we hold about your child in certain circumstances. For example, where we no longer need the information.
- Portability: you can request the transfer of your child's information to you or to a third party in a format that can be read by computer in certain circumstances. This applies where (a) the information has been provided by you; (b) the basis that we are relying on to process your child's personal data is consent or contract (please see "Our lawful basis for using your personal data" above); and (c) the personal data is being processed by us on computer.
- Restriction: request that we restrict how we use your child's personal data.
- Objection: you may object to us using your child's personal data where:

 - if we ever use your personal data for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

The Data Protection Officer can give you more information about your child's data protection rights.

Further information and guidance

This notice is to explain how we look after your child's personal data. The Data Protection Officer can answer any questions which you might have.

Like other organisations we need to keep your child's personal data safe, up to date, only use it for what we said we would, destroy it when we no longer need it and most importantly - treat the personal data we get fairly.

Please speak to the Data Protection Officer if:

- you would like to exercise any of your child's rights listed above; or
- you would like us to update the information we hold about your child; or
- you would prefer that certain information is kept confidential.

If you or your child fails to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform our obligations under the contract we have entered into with you. We may also be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the welfare of your child and their classmates). Failing to provide information may also adversely affect the education and care we are able to provide to your child.

You have a right to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner's Office - ico.org.uk. If you do have any concerns about how we have handled your child's personal data we would kindly ask that you contact us in the first instance before you speak to the ICO so that we have an opportunity to put things right.
